SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER TERM, 1946

No. 1224

THE MOTOR HAULAGE COMPANY, INC.,

vs.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, ET AL.,
Defendants

MOTION TO AFFIRM ON BEHALF OF INTERVENING DEFENDANT REGULAR COMMON CARRIER CONFERENCE OF THE AMERICAN TRUCKING ASSOCIATIONS, INC.

Intervening defendant, Regular Common Carrier Conference of the American Trucking Associations, Inc., is an association consisting of common carriers of property by motor vehicle, members of the American Trucking Associations, Inc., a non-profit organization of the trucking industry, organized primarily to foster, protect, and defend the interests of common carrier members of the trucking industry, and to advance such interests through cooperation and organization.

Intervening defendant, pursuant to Rule 12, paragraph 3, of the Revised Rules of the Supreme Court, moves that the decree of the District Court be affirmed.

Involved is a direct appeal from a final decree dated January 20, 1947, of a specially constituted district court of three judges constituted pursuant to the Urgent Deficiencies Act of October 22, 1913, which dismissed appellant's complaint to set aside an order of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

It is respectfully submitted that the decree of the district court should be affirmed without argument. In support of this motion intervening defendant respectfully refers to the argument in support of the motion to affirm filed in this matter on behalf of the United States of America and Interstate Commerce Commission, Defendants-Appellees.
